Scargill Movement

Lives shared, lives transformed

Dear Friends,

A very warm welcome to our new Programme which will take you up to the end of August 2023. We are glad to say that the Community is slowly and steadily growing and you are now able to come as many times as you like, rather than restricting you to two visits. We will always be looking for new members of Community – so please continue to pray for us, and if someone comes to mind please encourage them to get in touch. The big news is that beginning in the Spring, for six months, we will be refurbishing the Marsh Lounge and surrounding area. This will not detract from people visiting as we have planned well for this. We realise that we are in economically unsettling times, so please be aware of the bursary fund and if you are struggling in this area, and would like to come, please do get in touch with us. We would love to welcome you through our doors.

As usual we are excited about the programme. We have photography and walking weeks as well as a more relaxed wildlife walks week if you wish to be out in the Dales. For the more artistic amongst us, we have a painting week with Jane Gamble and Michelle Gilliam-Hull leading a glass fusing week. In the programme you will also see our Half Term week with the theme 'Winnie the Pooh' and the dates for this year's three SummerFests. Fest was so wonderful this year! We also have a week entitled 'Light in the shadow of bereavement' but this has limited spaces so please book early if you wish to come. There is a wide range of speakers and subjects that we hope will encourage us all in our faith and love for God. We welcome back Anna and Andreas Andersson from Sweden, as well as Bridget and Adrian Plass, Dave Hopwood, John Pritchard, Roy Searle, Donna Worthington, Elaine and Alan Storkey, Roger Jones with the CMM Team, Tim Hull, David Robinson (Searchlight theatre) Judy Moore, Rob Halligan and Jim Taylor (first timer!) and, of course, our own Team particularly Mike Leigh and Shaun Lambert.

We very much look forward to welcoming you into our home – a place where you can relax, be yourself. A place where it is safe to say dangerous things. A place where you can be open to the God of grace.

With love and prayers,
Phil and Di

Joining the adventure

Phil and Liz Goodacre, with their daughters Miriam and Phoebe arrived in the middle of August, just in time to get a glimpse of the end of Summerfest.

It was seven years ago that the idea of joining the community at Scargill first took hold, when Phil came on retreat – his first time at Scargill since visiting as a child on a church house-party around thirty years ago. Sensing it was time for a change from parish ministry in Sheffield, Phil and Liz started actively exploring the call to join Community about a year ago, and accepted the invitation to join the Scargill adventure back in May.

Phil has been in ordained parish ministry for eleven years, having previously been a youth worker in a range of settings including churches, youth clubs and in schools with young people at risk of exclusion. In parish ministry Phil particularly enjoyed nurturing the relationship between church and school for the good of the local community. Memorable moments include seeing his face recreated as part of the local school's Easter-egg decorating competition! Phil is a fan of Chesterfield FC, and enjoys making jam, chutney and sloe gin. He has joined Community as another Chaplain, working alongside Mike.

Liz used to work in a chocolate factory, before moving on to make children's paracetamol and mouthwash. For the last five years she has been a full-time mum, as well as being a full-time vicar's wife. Liz loves her purple Doc Marten boots and is a fan of sudokus. She enjoys being outside – walking, picnicking, exploring. Liz has joined the House Team at Scargill, alongside childcare responsibilities.

Miriam has recently started at primary school, and currently enjoys colouring, dressing up, and playing. Phoebe has just begun pre-school, and she enjoys jumping in puddles and her favourite colour is 'messy'!

Phil and Liz were looking for a new adventure, and were somewhat relieved that God has called them to a place where they still speak English and drive on the same side of the road!! They were drawn to the rhythm of prayer and community life, as well as the physical location of Scargill!! They're looking forward to seeing how this next chapter of life pans out....

Closing the gap

From Bishop Chris Edmondson, Chair of the Council of the Scargill Movement.

Over these last 14 years of my involvement with Scargill, I've been privileged to hear of countless examples of God at work. Individuals who have come to, or back to a living faith in our Lord Jesus Christ; people arriving at Scargill in despair, and leaving with hope rekindled. Church groups finding fresh vision and energy in the call to serve their local communities. Worn out leaders - from all spheres of life- finding it a safe place to be real, and find refreshment.

'Lives shared, lives transformed, with Jesus at the centre', is so much more than a strapline, or aspiration! Thank you Lord, and thank you to all the community whom God uses to enable these things to happen. But all this wouldn't be possible without the commitment which so many of you have shown over these years, in terms of your incredibly generous financial support. This has been particularly the case in helping keep the 'good ship Scargill' afloat, during the difficult period in 2020 and 2021 when for 15 months we had no guest income. Thank you so much!

And now, more than two years later than originally planned, next Spring, we are finally going to see work begin on what we call Phase 7 of the Scargill's building development. You'll find details of this elsewhere in Momentum, but the largest part of the money needed will be spent on the long overdue replacement of the roof and other work on the Marsh lounge.

I'll leave my Council colleague and accountant friend John Fell to give more details, but in round terms we are looking for £300,000 towards the total costs of around £1.66 million for this Phase. The reason we don't need to ask for more for Phase 7, is because of the generous regular donations we have received over recent years, along with good stewardship on the part of your Trustees and Scargill's leadership.

I'm conscious that many of us are facing significant personal financial challenges at this present time of high inflation, rising fuel and food costs. However, if you are able in any way, however small or large, to stand with us and help 'close the gap', that would be massively appreciated. Between the 4,000 of us who receive Momentum, I'm confident we'll witness another example of God at work!

Thank you so much, and God bless you for your love, support and prayers.
+Chris

From John Fell, Chair of the Finance and Business Group

It's some years now since we brought to you the launch of major work on our estate. But we are up to Phase 7 and about to start the tender process for work on the Marsh Lounge which will make that into a more accessible and welcoming space ... and watertight too! We are hoping to be able to do some other work which will not be as noticeable but will enhance the exterior of the Old House and safeguard our waste water sewerage system, car parking facilities and stores.

We will have set aside, from gifts you and our friends have donated over the past few years including legacies approaching £250,000 from friends no longer with us, almost £1.3million. But when work starts next Spring (2023) how much of these additional projects we are able to do will depend on the additional funds that come in between now and next Summer.

When we undertook our earlier projects on the initial refurbishment and for specific items like the chapel lift and biomass boiler we were able to get grants and contributions from other charitable and grant making bodies but by far the vast majority of our funding income has come from our regular faithful friends giving consistently and persistently over the past 12 years. We want to express to you all our love and thanks for what you have helped Scargill become – a home for community and guests and a place we have all come to love.

Our next Phase of building development in the 3 peaks area is likely to cost in excess of £4million and we will be launching that funding opportunity after this current phase is completed but we wanted to let you know where we were up to with this current phase 7. We are awaiting final costings and the outcome of the tender process but we anticipate that we will need another £300,000 on top of the £1.3 million we currently have to complete all we would like to do on Phase 7. We would love you to be part of it by whatever means you are able by prayer and support and giving – by small gift or large gift or regular giving. If current giving isn't possible please think of us with a bequest in your will.

All are welcome but especially we welcome and love your presence with us along the way!

Four steps to better friendships

Sheridan Voysey, the founder of FriendshipLab.org and a regular presenter of Pause for Thought on BBC Radio 2, will be leading a retreat on The Power of Friendship at Scargill on September 11–15, 2023. www.sheridanvoysey.com

'Who can you call in the middle of the night when everything has gone wrong?' When I first heard this question some years ago it shook me to the core. How many of my friendships were that strong? I wasn't sure. I knew then I needed to develop deeper friendships in my life. A few weeks ago, my friend DJ and I started brainstorming what makes a great friendship. Some helpful tips emerged from that conversation which I have expanded below.

Shared Interests

When DJ and I first met, we found we had a shared Christian faith, a shared love of books, and similar ideas on how to improve the world. We had enough in common to say 'Me too!' and enough differences to be stretched by each other. CS Lewis puts this so well in The Four Loves: 'The very condition of having friends is that we should want something else besides friends... Friendship must be about something, even if it were only an enthusiasm for dominoes or white mice. Those who have nothing can share nothing; those who are going nowhere can have no fellow-travellers.' So, to develop deeper friendships: Develop a broad range of interests; Be interested in others and what lights them up; Find places to meet like-minded people, like church (the best source of my friendships), a MeetUp group or some other environment that allows for conversation and shared activities

Shared Stories

A shared interest isn't enough - you need shared stories too, whether it's a gig you saw together, a project you worked on, or just some belly laughs you shared. DJ and I joined forces on a radio programme tackling child poverty and visited various developing countries together in the process. We took joint family holidays and even did a pilgrimage together. All of these things have taken our friendship deeper. So, to develop deeper friendships: Take a risk and invite someone out for coffee, a movie, a game, shopping; As the friendship grows look for more ways to connect: shared projects, holidays; Ultimately, spend time together

Shared Trust

One of the marks of true friendship is that you can relax in each other's presence. Masks can be dropped. Words don't have to be measured. Failures, faults and doubts can be shared, not just successes and triumphs.

Shared trust is built on confidences being kept, on being listened to without judgment, and on knowing you'll be told the truth even when it hurts. The nineteenth-century poet Dinah Craik put this beautifully:

'Oh, the comfort – the inexpressible comfort of feeling safe with a person – having neither to weigh thoughts nor measure words, but pouring them all right out,
just as they are,
chaff and grain together;
certain that a faithful hand will take and sift them,
keep what is worth keeping,
and then with the breath of kindness blow the rest away.'

Biblical proverbs abound on this theme:

'As iron sharpens iron, so a friend sharpens a friend.'

'A gossip goes around telling secrets, but those who are trustworthy can keep a confidence.'

'The heartfelt counsel of a friend is as sweet as perfume and incense.'

'Wounds from a sincere friend are better than many kisses from an enemy.'

So, to develop deeper friendships: Listen without criticism and keep every confidence told to you; When the friendship is ready, be vulnerable with your feelings; Listen to a truth you need to hear. Don't react; Be willing to share a corrective word too when it's absolutely needed

Shared Encouragement

Perhaps nothing forges a friendship better than shared encouragement—whether championing each other's work, cheering on from the sidelines, or, in particular, being there when life falls apart. At one of my darkest moments DJ drove for two hours to listen to and pray with me when he had better things to do. Few experiences strengthen friendship like a crisis shared. 'Many will say they are loyal friends, but who can find one who is truly reliable?' (Proverbs 20:6) 'A friend is always loyal, and a brother is born to help in time of need.' (Proverbs 17:17)

So, to develop deeper friendships: Be available for your friend in their time of need; Be willing to ask for help when you're in need too; Know that your presence, not necessarily your advice, is what is most needed. That conversation with DJ helped me see a few things: that deep friendship is rare, so treasure those you have. And that finding a common cause and creating some shared moments is a good way to start making a few more. As for friends I can call in the middle of the night? I think I have some now, but will keep the following proverb in mind:

'Don't visit your neighbours (or call them in the middle of the night) too often, or you will wear out your welcome!' Proverbs 25:17

Summerfest 2022 – a Chaplain's experience!

From Mike Leigh

'Goodness is not just our impulse. It is our essence.' Desmond Tutu

I simply love Summerfest! From the moment when guests arrive and tents are set up, to the final moments when we celebrate the good things of the week and see how lives have been transformed and blessed. In between it is a banquet of fun, laughter, thoughtfulness, friendships, mixed together with prayer, worship, games, walks, crafts, music, theatre, good food and of course, lots and lots of silliness (it is Scargill after all)!! This year I was responsible for the opening game of rounders up on the Chapel lawn just as people were arriving. I really enjoyed this as it gave me the opportunity to start learning names and getting a measure of family dynamics. It was also wonderful to see people start to relax and to begin the process of meeting each other and building relationships, which is at the heart of what we are about here at Scargill.

Summerfest is an energetic, fun-filled week, full of noise and conversations, but it is also important that there is time for reflection and quietness. One example of this was the Lament Workshops which we ran each week. We found that there were plenty of adults who needed to find time (amidst the joy and fun of the week) to stop and reflect, to pray and recognise the painful or difficult things of life. I just wonder if it is precisely because we put so much emphasis on building relationships that we create the trust and space for people to be honest and open with God.

'Lives shared, lives transformed, with Jesus at the centre' was the perfect theme for our week because it is in the coming together and in the building of community that we discover the goodness of humanity and, through that, discover the beauty and wonder of the hope we have in Christ. We can't wait for Summerfest 2023, maybe if you haven't tried it yet, you'd better sign up and come and join in the fun.

Lament sculpture

Wendy Bunting adds...

Scargill is all about people sharing their lives: giving and receiving hospitality; meeting old friends and making new ones: and being open to the transformative love of Jesus. So this year our theme for Summerfest was our strap-line: Lives Shared, Lives Transformed – with Jesus at the Centre

It never ceases to amaze me how quickly a group of people from all sorts of different backgrounds and experiences can come together and form a unique community, but it continues to happen here, and never more so than at Summerfest.

The difference between the evening meal on the first night and the last is incredible. When families have just arrived, they anxiously walk into the dining room, desperate to find a table where they can all sit together. By the time we reach the last night, very few children are sitting with their own parents! They've made new friends, grown in confidence and are enjoying spreading their wings.

For me, one of the highlights of every Summerfest that helps to develop this sense of community among those present is Wet and Wild – Scargill's water slide which has come back since the Covid break with an extra hill at the beginning for added fun factor! My particular fondness for it is due to its effect on those present – some as onlookers and encouragers, others as intrepid sliders, always supporting one another. It's a time when unfamiliar faces become familiar; when nameless strangers become well-known friends. It is enjoyed by children and adults alike – especially the adults who are brave enough to meet the challenge and throw themselves down the hill, aiming for the goal at the bottom!

We talk about lives shared, lives transformed with Jesus at the centre and I am pretty sure that's what's happening on the chapel lawn when we get the hosepipes and tarpaulin out. The serious thinking might happen during the worship and the morning sessions, but the transformative sharing of lives, with Jesus' loving presence amongst us, happens while celebrating life through Wet and Wild!

What the Kingdom of God can teach us about Community

From Phil Stone

I have been reflecting on the Kingdom of God over the last few weeks as we enter into the Kingdom Season in the church calendar. Our midday prayers have some lovely and meaningful opening refrains that sum up what it means to be Kingdom people, the call to be a new humanity, a new way of living with Jesus at the centre. Stopping to pray at midday is a such a good discipline. We take a breather, refocus, remind ourselves that we are participating in his love, in His way. So here are the refrains:

Gracious God you love us,
We come to meet you now.
Thank you for making us your co-workers,
as we are and who we are.
Take our gifts, bless them and multiply them.
Let us see your kingdom come.
In this place, at this time, through us.
Amen

I particularly like the last one - 'Let us see your kingdom come!' So what would that look like? Jesus says at the beginning of Mark's Gospel (Mark 1v15) 'The kingdom of God is near, repent and believe in the good news.' 'Repent' is not a word that we often hear in today's society and culture. Perhaps it has heavy overtones, and we have seen too many placards that say, 'Repent or perish' - now that is a turn off. But to repent is about turning round, a change of heart, a change of mind, and we are turning into what Jesus calls 'good news'. We are turning around into life, a Kingdom life where Jesus is the King.

Now this is good news! As we listen to the stories that Jesus tells we begin to recognise the way Jesus talks, the way Jesus treats people and we begin to understand the Jesus way, we begin to see that the Kingdom of God truly challenges the way we live. Rowan Williams writes: 'Being where Jesus is means being in the company of the people whose company Jesus seeks and keeps.' We have a King who will be found on the edge of society and who speaks truth to power and it's beautiful that we have a Servant King who washes feet and cooks breakfast for his friends.

The Kingdom of God challenges the status quo. It is an upside-down kingdom. In fact, as kingdom people we will be at odds with all that is going on around us. Jacques Ellul, the French philosopher and theologian writes 'Christians were never meant to be normal. We've always been holy troublemakers, we've always been creators of uncertainty, agents of a dimension that's incompatible with the status quo; we do not accept the world as it is, but we insist on the world becoming the way that God wants it to be. And the Kingdom of God is different from the patterns of this world.'

So living Christian community is a sign of the Kingdom - challenging some of the assumptions of our society, particularly the idol of individualism. Paul says in Romans 12 (from the Message) 'love deeply' and 'practice playing second fiddle'. We learn on Community that it is not all about 'me, myself and I' but it's about looking out for fellow community members. It is here we find life and we can begin to grow in the ways of Jesus. Relationships are at the heart and honoured, diversity is celebrated, downward mobility the sign of servant heartedness is the way of Jesus. It is a life generously shared, and yes, dependent on the love and flow of the Holy Spirit.

Community is a beautiful expression of life together - but it can be the most challenging. It's worth bursting the bubble of any romantic illusions people have of living in Community. There is pain as we learn to be forgiven and to forgive, as we face our own difficulties, yet Community is also a place of joy and celebration - we are called to live generously towards one another.

Brother Roger, the founder of the Taizé community writes 'Many people ask themselves, "What does God want of me?" When we read the Gospel, we understand God asks us to be a reflection of his presence in every situation. God invites us to make life beautiful for those he entrusts to us.' Brother Roger's words are very challenging yet speak gloriously of the Kingdom!

T S Elliot in one of his poems writes:

What life have you if you have not life together?
There is no life that is not in community
And no community not lived in praise of GOD.

The chaordic* unity of Community

From Shaun Lambert

What do two people from Brazil, two people from Pakistan, one person from Hong Kong, a couple of English men, an English woman, a woman from Scotland, and a woman from Ghana all have in common? They are part of community here at Scargill and all live in Pent, which is part of our community accommodation, with a big kitchen and sitting room (which is important for this story). They were all sitting together in the sitting room eating and playing games when I joined them. I asked them what their highlight was of living together. They were all talking it was hard to get a word in edgeways!

Food brings us together...

What was it that was so funny the other day?

We have fun over pronunciation and language...

We were laughing so much...

We love the difference...

It's challenging and rewarding because we can share our different perspectives.

* Adjective. Of a system, organization, or natural process governed by or combining elements of both chaos and order. A very Scargillian word.

I've never met someone from Pakistan and Hong Kong before...

We have fun sharing expressions and being together...sharing our lives does transform them.

We prayed for the floods in Pakistan...

Talk to me afterwards I'm playing games...

Food...We don't have meat and two veg we all cook a dish and share them in common (curry is the favourite) ...

I love to hear different languages, I love to hear the laughter, I love the togetherness, I love our differences but especially the fact that we are one family.

One thing I like? I think there are many things I like about our diversity!

Everyone brings their own creative way of being. Everyone has their own essence – a lot of learning...

There are some obsessions, like cricket...lots of laughter...

What shall I say, help me!

My highlight here is the diversity of community...

Do you prefer a pot full of flowers with one colour, or a pot with many different coloured flowers?

I prefer the pot with many flowers...that's like community.

We are spreading different fragrances...

Three of us are going to Scotland at Christmas, so we get to explore as well...

One of us likes history, another one will want to shop, I'll be happy to drink some beer!

You should all try and join community and have this experience in your life.

I believe it is really good for your life journey.

I hope these words of different community members in all the chaotic unity of being together give you a flavour of what it is like here at Scargill and in Pent. Do come and visit as a guest or consider joining community.

Coming to Scargill

To come to Scargill is to join the adventure of a community aiming to keep Jesus right at the centre. These are some of the things that we hope you'll find here:

A warm welcome

Our aim is to welcome each guest as unique and special, as if we're welcoming Jesus, and to see God bring hope and transformation to each person's life.

A serving community

We are a group of people of many ages, nations, backgrounds and denominations whose aim is to love and serve everyone God sends us. Sharing our lives in community is a rich, encouraging, challenging and costly business, and we want to share lives with our guests too.

Prayer

At Scargill we would love you to meet the living God through prayer. We have a daily rhythm of prayer that you are welcome to join, and members of the community are glad to pray individually with you if you would like this.

Laughter

We've learned here that laughter is not the poor relation of 'serious ministry' - it's a gift from God that transforms and heals. A guest told us that he laughed here for the first time in two years. We don't mind whether you're laughing with us or at us - we just hope you will laugh!

A beautiful place

The Yorkshire Dales have been rated as the third best region to visit in the whole world - and it's no surprise to us! Every photo in this programme was taken on or near the Scargill estate - from breathtaking views of Wharfedale to our idyllic walled garden, it really is as beautiful as it looks. And the people are pretty lovely, too!

COVID arrangements

Although the Government have released us from COVID restrictions we are very aware of the need to progress carefully. Our desire is to truly care for all who come to Scargill and make it as safe as we possibly can. Please check the website for the latest updates.

Ways to enjoy Scargill

Join our programme

We have a huge variety of holidays and retreats on offer, reflecting the vision and values of the Scargill Movement. Join us for activity-based breaks, all age holidays, environmental conferences, retreats and events aimed at equipping both the church and individuals.

Come with a group

You are welcome to come as a church, an organisation or a group of friends – smaller groups can fit alongside our programme, and you'll notice that there are gaps in between our events to allow for those who would like to book the whole house. Many people are choosing Scargill for conferences and church weekends, and we are now booked up to the end of 2023. You can bring your own speakers or ask us to lead some of your event.

Just come

If you need a friendly place to stay for a few days, come and create your own individual holiday or retreat. Join in with as much or as little as you fancy and, if you need to chat or to pray, someone will be available.

Online programme

We are delighted that we are able to offer a monthly quiet day and a number of hybrid programmed events (more details on page 14). Please check the website for details and dates. We will continue to offer our Wednesday live stream prayer service at 4.30pm.

Working holidays

If you're aged 18 or over, join us in caring for our estate and gardens, with plenty of time to relax as well. You'll spend some of your time working hard outside and some joining other guests or just doing your own thing.

Working friends

We have a terrific group of working friends who love to work alongside the community in the grounds, the gardens, kitchen or house. We cannot function without them! If you're interested in becoming a working friend, please talk to us. Working friends have opportunities to join the planned programme when not on shift. The only expense is a voluntary contribution to cover costs.

Bring the kids!

Friends and Companions

Our Friends and Companions are wonderful people who support us prayerfully and financially - and some of our events are set aside just for them. If you are interested in becoming a Friend or Companion, call us.

Holidays for all ages

During school holidays and half terms we run events that are great for all ages. Usually in the morning there are activities for the children and young people so that they have a fun time while the adults enjoy their sessions. In the afternoon there's lots to do together as a family. Bring the children - or grandchildren - and their friends! These special events are marked in the programme with our 'family friendly' icon. Check the inside back cover for discounts for children, young people and single parent families.

Youth and school groups

We are expanding our youth work here at Scargill and would love to hear from you if you'd like to bring your youth group or a school party, for the day or to stay over.

Childcare at other events

If you want to come on an adult event and need someone to look after the children while you engage with the programme, please ask. Depending on the availability of Community members, we will do everything we can to help.

Friends' & Companions' weekends

(1) Fri 13 to Sun 15 January

(2) Fri 20 to Sun 22 January

Led by the Scargill Community

We are so grateful for our Friends and Companions here at Scargill. Without your love, support and prayers, we would quite simply not be here. As a small token of our thanks, we welcome you to a weekend of worship, teaching and relaxation. Find out about the latest developments and hopes for the future, and celebrate God's goodness on the adventure so far. We would love to share this time with as many of you as possible, so we are limiting bookings to Friends and Companions only.

Individually guided retreat

Mon 16 to Fri 20 January

Led by Margi Walker and Team

Imagine sitting with God gazing out on the glorious Yorkshire landscape as you eat your meals. On Individually Guided Retreats we do just that! Our team of experienced spiritual directors will accompany you through your silent retreat, offering a daily one-to-one session for up to 40 minutes. Each day an optional Holy Communion service will include a short talk. This event is limited to 16 places, so we encourage you to book early. Margi Walker is an Anglican minister and member of the Scargill Community.

Wandering and wondering in the wilderness!

Mon 6 to Fri 10 February

Led by Bishop Chris Edmondson

How is your sense of direction?! Whether it's good or not, I feel sure like me, you'll have had experiences of being lost, or taking wrong turnings. The Old Testament book of Exodus tells the story of the people of Israel's 40 years wandering in the wilderness... which could have been a lot shorter, had it not been for wrong turnings and doses of disobedience! Maybe you're currently not sure where God is leading you, feel in a cul de sac, or that he's left you to wander alone in a wilderness. If so, we'd love you to come and join us, as we explore what we can learn from these ancient, but very relevant experiences of wandering and wondering. We will be led on the journey by Bishop Chris Edmondson, Chair of the Scargill Movement.

Half term Hobbits! (2)

Mon 20 to Fri 24

February

Led by the Scargill community

For this half term family holiday we'll be heading to Middle Earth for lots of hobbitry fun. It's a badly kept secret that our director, Phil, is part hobbit on his mother's side. The curly hair, the furry feet, and the capacity to eat a second and even third breakfast speak for themselves. So he is the natural choice to lead us there and back again, learning more about ourselves and Jesus on the journey. We'll be running a youth and children's programme as well as teaching for adults, with times for all ages to share fun together.

Enneagram 1: God-shaped people

Fri 24 to Sun 26 February

Led by Margi Walker & Diane Stone

Come and discover more about who you are and how God might want to shape you. This is an introductory course to the Enneagram which is a tool to help us grow in understanding ourselves and others. Enneagram is Greek for '9 points' and describes nine personality types. Margi is on the Pastoral Team at Scargill and Diane works in Personnel and looks after community welfare. Sitting alongside John

Mon 27 February to Fri 3 March

Led by Bishop Bob Evens

Lent Retreat: growing closer to God. The early Church needed someone who was actually there alongside Jesus to help them fully understand Jesus' ministry. We sit alongside John as his Gospel is written and John speaks of the signs and truths we need to recognise. The house will be in silence from Tuesday morning until Wednesday evening so we can focus without distraction on what God shows us. Bishop Bob Evens leads retreats at Lee Abbey and Scargill with Scripture alongside paintings, poetry, music and stillness.

Mercy, loopholes & miracles

Fri 3 to Sun 5 March

Led by Adrian & Bridget Pluss

Why doesn't God fix all problems with a sweep of his hand? Theologians and preachers are busily engaged in untangling that particular knot. We'll leave them to it and ask a different question. What does God most want? Leaving aside the imponderables, his overwhelming desire, as far as we can see, is to be close to us. Something went badly wrong. Eden nostalgia, metaphorical or otherwise? Jesus was sent to pursue us back into our father's arms. How did he do it? In many ways. Mercy, loopholes and miracles featured strongly. We still see them. That is what we shall curiously, smilingly consider this weekend.

Jesus – Man of Sorrow, Man of Joy

Mon 6 to Fri 10 March

Led by Dave Hopwood & Phil Stone

A chance to explore the way Jesus was rooted in our troubled, earthy reality and yet full of the love and life of God. The Message Bible describes Jesus as the Word who became flesh and blood and moved into the neighbourhood. The gospel writers tell us of Jesus fully interacting with the harsh realities of life, while bringing the wonder and compassion of God's kingdom to all those he met. A God who is well-acquainted with trouble and loss, and is able to bring light and the breath of God into the darkest places of life. Dave uses film and contemporary stories to illustrate and illuminate the work of God in our lives, and Phil is the Director of Scargill.

The 'Jewish' Gospel – Meeting God in Matthew

Mon 13 to Fri 17 March

Led by Elaine Storkey

Matthew's Gospel speaks as clearly to us as to the Jewish community who first received it. But we understand it even better when we hear it as they heard it and grasp the life-changing significance of Jesus. So much in this Gospel proclaims Jesus as God's anointed One, whose birth, life, teaching, miracles, death and resurrection offers hope to the whole of humankind. We'll unpack it together, and maybe even discover things we never knew were there! Elaine spent many months combing through the scholarship on Matthew's Gospel to write a book which shows its relevance to our own times. She would love to share this with you this week.

Mindfulness & Song

Mon 13 to Fri 17 March

Led by Shaun Lambert & Mike Leigh

Whilst living in community together Mike and Shaun developed a unique fusion of mindfulness and song, where they explore practical access points to spirituality, wellbeing and community. Come and join them for this joyful and creative week and discover the ways singing can help us be attentive to God, ourselves and to one another. Please note - you do not need to read music or be experienced singers to take part in this week - we offer this weekend to anyone who would like to join in. No audition required - all are welcome!

One, two, tree

Mon 13 to Fri 17 March

Led by Alan Storkey

Trees are crucial for humankind. They also feature in the Bible from Genesis onwards, both in relation to people and important events. Trees symbolise strength, righteousness and wisdom; they clap their hands and shout for joy. This week we'll be looking at trees in revelation and trees on earth. We'll reflect on deforestation through climate change, tree planting world-wide, tree engineering systems and, natural history, as well as on leaves, roots, types, lives, wood and fruits. Alan is an economist, philosopher and artist who has spent much of his lifetime in the company of trees.

Bread of Life

Mon 20 to Fri 24 March

Led by Helen Brocklehurst, Mike & Alison Leigh

After the popularity of our bread-making workshops here at Scargill, we couldn't resist offering a whole week of bread making! The week will include reflections and discussion with lots of hands-on-time, getting to grips with the practical skills needed for making different types of bread. The house will smell mouth wateringly good! You knead to come!!! (Note: Places on this week are limited).

Threads of grace

Mon 20 to Fri 24 March

Led by Jayne Shepherd

A retreat for textile crafters - explore the healing power of working with thread, linking with mindfulness and prayer. This event is for those who make lace of any kind - bobbin, needle, crochet, tatting - or who do knitting or embroidery! Explore how our craft can help us to create space for meeting God in stillness. There will be short talks, times of silence, free time to enjoy our surroundings and opportunities to share together. Jayne, an Anglican Priest, has found lacemaking and similar crafts to be a wonderful blessing in her ministry. (See: facebook.com/lacemakingpilgrim)

Return to The Hiding Place with Corrie Ten Boom

Fri 31 March to Sun 2 April

Led by David Robinson and Judy Moore

Following the huge success of Searchlight Theatre Company's recent tour of the Corrie Ten Boom classic book, the script writers and performers from the production invite you delve with them into the wonderful book. Join David Robinson and Judy Moore as they go 'backstage' and reveal what they learnt about Corrie and her wonderful family as they researched and produced this stage adaptation. The weekend will include a potted performance of the play.

Mundane miracles

Mon 17 to Fri 21 April

Led by Rob Halligan with Phil Stone

Sometimes spotting the miracles in our lives can be hard work. In fact, knowing that God is there can sometimes be difficult. When we look at the miracles in the Gospels it's easy to think that if those type of things happened more then believing would be easy. Simon Peter had the miracles and the companionship of Jesus, so which was more important? Did he really need to walk on water or just need to get to Jesus? And what do those 'big' miracles tell us about life in today's world? Rob Halligan is a singer/songwriter. His 2020 album "Always Heading Home" has been described by Crossrhythms as "Magnificent" and by his mum as "lovely". www.robhalligan.co.uk Phil is Director of Scargill. He and Rob have been friends for many years.

Rings and wardrobes

Mon 24 to Fri 28 April

Led by David Robinson & Phil Stone

A week of travelling in and around Narnia and Middle Earth. We will be in the company of CS Lewis and JRR Tolkien, two men who had a complex and long-lasting friendship that endured many a scrape but resulted in shaping their characters, their faith and their literary output. The week will include readings, stage interpretations and friendly discussion on the impact of two of the greatest storytellers of the 20th century. Step in and enjoy, it will be lots of fun whether you are an Inklings fan or not. David has portrayed both Lewis and Tolkien on stage many times for Searchlight Theatre Company. Phil, our Director, is also a lover of Lewis and Tolkien.

Big burning questions

Mon 24 to Fri 28 April

Led by Tim Hull

Is there any reason for Faith? Has Science replaced God? When there is so much suffering can we believe in a God of love? Can miracles happen? Rev Dr Tim Hull (author of the highly acclaimed 'Faith and Modern thought') leads you through these big burning questions, drawing on the internationally popular videos he has produced. This week will involve a stimulating mixture of expert input and informal discussion. No previous academic knowledge of these questions required. Tim has taught theology for many years, primarily at St John's college Nottingham and currently at the Queens Foundation Birmingham.

Spring walking in the Dales

Mon 1 to Fri 5 May

Led by Mike Weighell

Come and discover the wild moorlands and mountains of the Dales, and the beautiful valleys below. We will be climbing some of the highest mountains in the Dale, like Birks fell in upper Wharfedale, and some of the less well known fells in Swaledale and Wensleydale. The walks will be STRENUOUS and challenging mountain, 10-12 miles each day and taking around six hours to complete. There will be lots of steep climbs and rough moorland walking throughout the day. These walks are only suitable for regular mountain and fell walkers. At the end of the day we will have time to relax and reflect on the beautiful scenery of the Dales and enjoy the hospitality of Scargill.

The Parables – nice little stories?

Mon 8 to Fri 12 May

Led by Donna Worthington

Are the parables nice little stories or subversive arrows turning things upside-down? Prepare to go down the rabbit hole as we explore these compelling teachings of Jesus, including the parables of 'The Unjust Judge & the Widow' and 'The Talents'. We'll use a mosaic of approaches - discussion, theological exploration, imaginative dream-time prayer, reflective quiet time - to seek to get into the flow of Jesus' thinking, Jesus the master storyteller. Donna is an experienced retreat giver and spiritual director. A trained teacher, she studied theology at Cambridge and is also trained in theatre, writing and storytelling.

Discovering angels – Art weekend

Fri 19 Sun 21 May

Led by Jane Gamble

Scargill: the place to paint angels! Art has always included angels: the guides and comfort in our daily life. How can we put them in our work? We'll look at traditional ways of painting them, seen in the Lindisfarne Gospels. Saturday afternoons are often time for new ideas in Scargill workshops. A chance to discuss and expand into, possibly, abstract forms. We might take paints outside and find angels there. Our time together features laughter and learning, and is suitable for all levels of experience.

The House at Pooh Corner

Mon 29 May to Fri 2 June

Led by the Scargill community

This week we're going on a Big Adventure with Winnie-the-Pooh and his friends. Although Pooh is a Bear of Very Little Brain, he often has Big Ideas, invents games like Pooh Sticks and hums songs with lots of Tiddley Poms. Owl is working on a WELCUM sign, Tigger is practising his BOUNCES and Eeyore says: 'I expect it will be fun but one mustn't complain.' We'll need to stop Quite Often for a little smack-erel, or honey. Join us as we learn lots about these lovable characters – and ourselves as well. We will be running a youth and children's programme, as well as teaching for adults, with times for all ages to share the fun together. Please note: Beware of Heffalumps, and of sitting on Piglet by mistake.

Sabbath – A way of living life as God intends for the world

Mon 5 to Fri 9 June

Led by Phil Stone & Roy Searle

Phil and Roy will be looking at the life principles and practices of Sabbath. Exploring a way for living that runs counter to the prevailing Western culture and its addiction to busyness, activism and damaging driven consumer lifestyles. Sabbath living paves the way for us to align ourselves to the ways of God and his loving purposes for our lives and the world. Phil is the Director of Scargill and Roy was one of the founders of the Northumbria Community and a former President of the Baptist Union of Great Britain. He is well known as a speaker, retreat leader, writer and leadership mentor.

Thankfulness – the missing link?

Fri 9 to Sun 11 June

Led by Bishop John Pritchard

An exploration of thankfulness as an often neglected dimension of our Christian lives. We easily take thankfulness for granted without actually doing it, or we do it without really meaning it. But gratitude opens us up afresh to the reality of God's love. Perhaps we need a 'discipline of thankfulness'? We'll explore how the New Testament breathes thankfulness, using Bible study, story, poetry, music and prayer to renew our commitment to gratitude. John Pritchard was Bishop of Oxford until retirement and has written many books on aspects of Christian living, seeking to make the Christian Way attractive and accessible.

The Invitation to Life

Mon 26 to Fri 30 June

Led by Phil Stone & Andreas Andersson

The Scargill welcome service (borrowed from Iona) says: 'For where paths cross and pilgrims gather, there is much to share and celebrate in your name, three-in-one God, pattern of community.' Andreas and Phil will adventure into the life of the Trinity, the flowing love of God by which the world is oddly and beautifully blessed. The life which welcomes us to participate and celebrate the presence of God. We will do this by exploring scripture, church history, different theologians and our own experiences. We look forward to a joyful and challenging week, continuing our discussions, welcoming any newcomers as well as previous attendees..

Journeys to the back of beyond

Fri 7 to Sun 9 July

Led by Adrian & Bridget Plass

Joseph, of coloured coat fame, and Daniel, lion survivor, were both trafficked in their youth. They also had at least four more things in common. First, God had already chosen these two unsuspecting youths to directly affect the future of the Israeli nation. Secondly, dreams would feature strongly. Third, there would be severe temptations to be faced and resisted. Fourthly, both Daniel and Joseph would need to deal with unavoidable experiences of profound emotional distress in connection with their past lives. What can our life's journey and hopefully developing faith possibly have in common with that of those heroes? Worth exploring? We think so.

Scargill gift vouchers

Why not arrange to have one of our gift vouchers and a copy of the new Scargill programme delivered to someone who will really appreciate an unusual and constructive present? Perhaps as a grandparent you'd like to help make it possible for your children and grand-children to discover Scargill. Or maybe as a church you'd like to say 'thank you' to your youth worker by giving them some time away. You might like to treat a single-parent family to a special holiday or just make a fun gift. Just tell us how much you want the voucher to be worth - we'll do the rest!

Bursary fund

We want everyone to be able to come to Scargill. If your financial circumstances make it difficult for you, please contact the Director in confidence to discuss a discount paid for from our Bursary Fund.

Booking

For residential bookings you will need to complete our booking request form available on our website. For online events, book via our website which uses Eventbrite tickets. Without a booking form and deposit we cannot reserve a place. If you have any questions or particular needs please contact us and we will be only too happy to help.

Rates and Rooms

- Our standard adult rates from March 2023 are: Weekend £152, Monday to Friday £294. (For Jan/Feb the figures are £145 and £280). Private guests are charged at an equivalent programme rate. Rates for shorter or longer stays are calculated pro rata.
- These rates are per person and for full board. There is no supplement payable for single occupancy of a bedroom.
- Some events in our programme vary from this price - please see the individual listings.
- For children and youth use the table below for adjustments to standard adult rates for a week:

0 to 4 yrs	Free
5 to 7 yrs	70% off
8 to 11 yrs	50% off
12 to 16 yrs & full time students	30% off

- Single parents and their children receive an additional 10% discount.

- We are unable to offer personal care for disabilities ourselves, so we ask that you bring your own carer if you will need this attention. We will offer your carer a 20% discount, please ask about this when booking.
- We have a limited number of lovely en-suite rooms available at the cost of £10 extra per person per night. If you would like to request an en-suite room please indicate this when booking.
- Weekend programmes run from 4pm on Friday to 2pm on Sunday. Mid-week programmes run from 4pm on Monday to 10am on Friday.
- Day visits are often possible. For individuals or small groups joining the teaching programme or for small groups needing a private meeting room, our day rates from March 2023 are £23.25 (Jan/Feb £22.25) per person. For individuals wanting space on their own or for small groups not needing a private meeting room, our day rates are £17.50 (£16.75 for Jan/Feb) per person. In either case, the day rate includes lunch and two breaks with refreshments.
- Prices include VAT where applicable. We reserve the right to alter our prices to reflect any change in the VAT rate.
